For beginners who are ready to advance beyond flat knitting, working in the round is a natural progression, says designer Kristin Omdahl. It alleviates a lot of seams, she explains, which gives a better structure to your projects, as well as making them more pleasing aesthetically. Kristin created the designs in this book to be easy projects for learning to use double pointed and circular knitting needles, as well as combination projects that transition from one type of needle to the other. Great for gifts, projects include a Headband, Cowl, Lace Capelet, Pouch, Baby Hat, Fingerless Mitts, Baby Blanket and Family Hat in sizes for toddlers, children, women and men.

The pattern uses worsted weight yarn and size 5 mm (size 8 US) single pointed knitting needles. It's knit flat and you can either use self-striping yarn or use different shades of yarn to make this toque. I indicate where to change the colours of yarn in the pattern so there isn't any confusion. But please note, you can knit the beanie in one solid colour also. There's no reason why you can't. This tuque is in adult sizes only! It is NOT knit in the traditional way by casting on stitches to go around your head. It's knit from the side. Each row runs from the forehead to the top up to the crown of the head or to the pom pom. This is what makes the stripes vertical instead of the usual horizontal ones on all the other winter hats out there.

This is the more simplified version of my very popular Moccasin Slippers with a Cuff. I wanted to design a pattern that was still very minimalistic but didn't require any special techniques or multiple needles. This is what I came up with. The pattern is knitted on one set of single pointed, size 4 mm (US 6) needles. The pattern itself only involves the knit stitch, k2tog and picking up stitches. Easy peasy! For real. And if it's not, I've included a TON of photos to help you along. The purchase of this pattern allows you to make and sell the slippers, but you may not redistribute or resell this pattern.
